Our goal and commitment at 7 Leaf Solutions is to inspire holistic wellness by providing the highest quality and most affordable, naturally grown farm direct CBD oil wellness products available on the market.

With great care, we hand-select, breed and raise our CBD-rich Hemp in a sun-filled outdoor environment in Eastern Colorado. The results are beautiful, healthy plants that yield the potent, full-spectrum CBD oil that is featured in all of our products.

We're inspired by the possibilities for healing that manifest within a single plant.

We hope you will join us on our journey.

Our story began with a need...

Dennis Campbell (7 Leaf Solutions Owner, Founder & Dreamer) began the journey of growing CBD-rich Hemp to help his wife, Roxie, who was suffering with MS symptoms. At the time, she was having positive results with a popular CBD brand but because of the demand, getting the CBD oil was becoming more and more difficult until it became almost impossible. This didn't stop Dennis though!

With generations of farming in his genes, Dennis knew he could grow his own plants and then he would always be able to supply his wife with the natural medicine she needed. From seeds, each plant is grown in a natural outdoor environment on his family farm in Eastern Colorado. He chooses to use a MCT oil carrier which contains caprylic and capric acid, two well-known naturally occurring anti-bacterial, antiviral and antifungal agents for his oils.

OUR PRODUCTS

Full-spectrum farm direct CBD oil with peppermint

Our full spectrum CBD oil comes from the whole Hemp plant and contains a broad range of cannabinoids, as well as an array of terpenes and phytochemicals. Studies have demonstrated that the entourage (synergistic) effect of these ingredients together is greater than the sum of its parts. It contains less than .3% THC so it is non-psychoactive (it will not get you high). It has many healing properties and has been used to help with a variety of conditions.
